

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

GENERAL ORDER 02-03

This General Order is effective on and after January 2, 2002.

CHAPTER 7 PROCEDURES - FILING SCHEDULES & 341 MEETINGS

1. Timely Filing of Schedules and Statement of Affairs. Schedules and Statement of Affairs required by the Bankruptcy Code and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure must be filed within the time authorized by the Code or the Rules. If the Schedules are not timely filed, and no motion for an extension of time has been filed, the United States Trustee's Office notify the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court (Clerk) of such fact and the case will be dismissed without further notice or hearing.

2. Appearance at Section 341 Meetings. Debtors are required by the Bankruptcy Code and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure to attend a § 341 first meeting of creditors. The United States Trustee's Office will schedule a continued § 341 meeting if the debtor fails to appear at the originally scheduled meeting. If the debtor fails to appear at the continued § 341 meeting, the United States Trustee's Office may notify the Clerk of such fact and the case will be dismissed without further notice or hearing.

3. Notices of Continued Section 341 Meetings. If the § 341 first meeting is continued due to non-appearance by the debtor or debtor's counsel, the Chapter 7 Trustee will announce the date and time of the continued meeting at the originally scheduled § 341 first meeting. No further written notice will be provided by the Clerk or the United States Trustee's Office, except through the CM/ECF system, when applicable. It is the responsibility of debtor's counsel to contact the United States Trustee's Office to verify the date and time of the continued meeting and inform the debtors of the obligation to attend.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 21st day of December, 2001.

Timothy J. Mahoney, Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court
