

BANKRUPTCY RULE 1007(b)(7).

As an approved personal financial management course provider, you are now allowed to file the certificate of completion of the post-petition personal financial management course for debtors directly with the court. Bankruptcy Rule 1007(b)(7) has been amended to streamline this process and is scheduled to go into effect on December 1, 2013.

- As an approved personal financial management course provider, you will need to register as a CM/ECF limited filer. The form can be located on our internet at www.neb.uscourts.gov under CM/ECF Info > CM/ECF Forms > CM/ECF Limited User Registration Form.
- The training manual can be located on our internet at www.neb.uscourts.gov under CM/ECF Info > CM/ECF Manuals

Deadlines associated with filing certificates of debtors' completion of this course are critically important to the debtor and your responsibilities as an approved course provider.

- In a chapter 7 or 13 case, if the statement of the debtor's completion of the course is not filed within 45 days after the first date set for the §341 meeting, amended Fed. R. Bankr. P. 5009(b) will require the clerk to notify the debtor that the case will be closed without entry of a discharge unless the statement is filed within the applicable deadline under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).
- In a chapter 11 or 13 case, this certificate of completion must be filed no later than the last payment made by the debtor as required by the plan.

The risk to the debtor, if the provider fails to timely file the certificate, is that the debtor's case could be closed without a discharge. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4004(c)(1)(H).

Limited filer privileges may be revoked if the provider does not file a certificate in a timely manner.

- The failure to do so could result in the closing of the debtor's case without a discharge.
- In the event your limited filer privileges are revoked by the court, the court will notify the U.S. Trustee of the revocation.

If you need to review what has been filed in a case, you will need to register with the PACER Service Center to obtain case information at <http://www.pacer.gov/register.html>
