This General Order, effective August 1, 2013 supersedes, in its entirety, the procedures contained in Neb. R. Bankr. P 9017-1 with regard to hearings upon declarations and documentary evidence as well as destruction of exhibits. Neb. R. Bankr. P 9017-1 will be updated during the next Local Rules revision process.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that hearings scheduled on motions shall be governed by Neb. R. Bankr. P 9017-1 and Docketing Standards for Evidence located in the Local Rules, Appendix M.

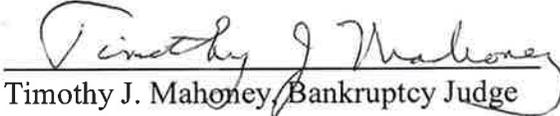

Exhibits (declarations, affidavits, discovery material and supporting documents) submitted in support of, or in opposition to a motion shall be electronically filed. A party may request to present oral testimony in support of, or in opposition to, a motion by filing and serving a request at least five days prior to the hearing.

Exhibits shall be electronically filed by the deadline set by the court or at least three days prior to the hearing. For electronically filed exhibits, follow the procedures outlined in the Local Rules, Appendix M. The Court may exclude evidence not filed and transmitted in accordance with this General Order.

On occasion an exhibit becomes illegible when scanned to a pdf file or physically cannot be filed electronically and has to be offered during the hearing or trial. THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the Clerk shall retain non-electronic exhibits for a period of ninety days after a final judgment or order provided no appeal is on file. On the date the Clerk destroys or returns the non-electronic exhibit(s), the Clerk shall make an entry on the docket noting the date of disposition.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: July 22, 2013
