MEMORANDUM

This matter is before me following a finding of contempt by Helen Frasier for violation of the automatic stay previously entered. In view of the ultimate decision of this Court regarding rights to possession of the real estate involved out of which the finding of contempt arises, in my judgment no sanction should be imposed on Helen Frasier as such. I reserve for separate determination whether the service of Merle Frasier's attorneys in bringing the contempt proceeding are compensable.

DATED: February 15, 1983.
