UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

HAVE YOU COMPLETED CREDIT COUNSELING?

From a U.S. Trustee Approved Agency [11 U.S.C § 109(h)]

READ THIS BEFORE YOU FILE YOUR CASE

If you have not completed counseling before you file your petition and you do not meet the requirements for an extension to complete the counseling after filing:

- Your case may be DISMISSED without refund of any filing fee paid;
- You WILL NOT receive a DISCHARGE of your debts;
- If you REFILE within ONE YEAR after dismissal, protection under the Bankruptcy Code from your creditors (i.e. the automatic stay) may be limited to thirty days.

Under the bankruptcy laws, the court can only allow you to complete the course after filing if you meet all of the following conditions. See 11 USC § 109(h)(3).

- 1) You must have tried to get credit counseling from an approved agency before bankruptcy but were not able to obtain the counseling during the 5-day period after you made the request; AND
- 2) There are exigent (emergency) circumstances that make it necessary for you to file your case immediately (Important: The court will determine what qualifies as an emergency circumstance);
- 3) You must file a certification stating the facts regarding conditions 1) and 2) above with your petition.

The decision to file your petition is up to you, but if you file without taking the course, you are risking dismissal of your case. The clerk cannot provide legal advice or predict in advance how a judge will decide your request for an extension to complete this requirement for credit courseling.

To complete this requirement before filing the petition, obtain from the clerk a list of United States Trustee approved pre bankruptcy credit counseling agencies or go to this website: http://www.usdoi.gov/ust/oo/bancpa/ccde/index.htm

http://www.usdoj.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/ccde/index.htm

You may take the course on the Internet, by telephone, or in person. If you do not have a computer, your public library may allow you to use their public computers.

NOTE: A waiver of the credit counseling requirement is available in very limited circumstances for persons on military duty in an active combat zone, or persons with a physical or mental impairment preventing participation in credit counseling, in person, by telephone, or on the Internet. A waiver must be granted by the court. 11 U.S.C. 109(h)(4). (9/16/2009)

Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy 12/22

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

First Name

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again. You must check one:

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

□ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

Incapacity.	I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
Disability.	My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
Active duty.	I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

For you if you are filing this bankruptcy without an attorney

First Name

If you are represented by an attorney, you do not need to file this page. The law allows you, as an individual, to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, but you should understand that many people find it extremely difficult to represent themselves successfully. Because bankruptcy has long-term financial and legal consequences, you are strongly urged to hire a qualified attorney.

To be successful, you must correctly file and handle your bankruptcy case. The rules are very technical, and a mistake or inaction may affect your rights. For example, your case may be dismissed because you did not file a required document, pay a fee on time, attend a meeting or hearing, or cooperate with the court, case trustee, U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or audit firm if your case is selected for audit. If that happens, you could lose your right to file another case, or you may lose protections, including the benefit of the automatic stay.

You must list all your property and debts in the schedules that you are required to file with the court. Even if you plan to pay a particular debt outside of your bankruptcy, you must list that debt in your schedules. If you do not list a debt, the debt may not be discharged. If you do not list property or properly claim it as exempt, you may not be able to keep the property. The judge can also deny you a discharge of all your debts if you do something dishonest in your bankruptcy case, such as destroying or hiding property, falsifying records, or lying. Individual bankruptcy cases are randomly audited to determine if debtors have been accurate, truthful, and complete. Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned.

If you decide to file without an attorney, the court expects you to follow the rules as if you had hired an attorney. The court will not treat you differently because you are filing for yourself. To be successful, you must be familiar with the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the local rules of the court in which your case is filed. You must also be familiar with any state exemption laws that apply.

Official Form 106C Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

□ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)

☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Include the line number to which the additional information applies. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). If you believe that you are exempted from a presumption of abuse because you do not have primarily consumer debts or because of qualifying military service, complete and file Statement of Exemption from Presumption of Abuse Under § 707(b)(2) (Official Form 122A-1Supp) with this form.

Fill in the average monthly income that you received from all sources, derived during the 6 full months before you file this bankruptcy case. 11 U.S.C. § 101(10A). For example, if you are filing on September 15, the 6-month period would be March 1 through August 31. If the amount of your monthly income varied during the 6 months, add the income for all 6 months and divide the total by 6. Fill in the result. Do not include any income amount more than once. For example, if both spouses own the same rental property, put the income from that property in one column only. If you have nothing to report for any line, write $0 in the space.

Part 2: Calculate Your Deductions from Your Income

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issues National and Local Standards for certain expense amounts. Use these amounts to answer the questions in lines 6-15. To find the IRS standards, go online using the link specified in the separate instructions for this form. This information may also be available at the bankruptcy clerk's office.

Deduct the expense amounts set out in lines 6-15 regardless of your actual expense. In later parts of the form, you will use some of your actual expenses if they are higher than the standards. Do not deduct any amounts that you subtracted from your spouse's income in line 3 and do not deduct any operating expenses that you subtracted from income in lines 5 and 6 of Form 122A–1.

If your expenses differ from month to month, enter the average expense.

Whenever this part of the form refers to you, it means both you and your spouse if Column B of Form 122A-1 is filled in.

5. The number of people used in determining your deductions from income

Fill in the number of people who could be claimed as exemptions on your federal income tax return, plus the number of any additional dependents whom you support. This number may be different from the number of people in your household.

National Standards You must use the IRS National Standards to answer the questions in lines 6-7.

- 6. Food, clothing, and other items: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for food, clothing, and other items.
- 7. Out-of-pocket health care allowance: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for out-of-pocket health care. The number of people is split into two categories—people who are under 65 and people who are 65 or older—because older people have a higher IRS allowance for health care costs. If your actual expenses are higher than this IRS amount, you may deduct the additional amount on line 22.

DEBTOR'S ELECTRONIC NOTICING REQUEST (DeBN)

CHECK ONLY ONE BOX FOR THE APPLICABLE SECTION BELOW:

INITIAL REQUEST: (Check this box to begin receiving notices and orders from the U.S. Bankruptcy Court email)

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9036, I hereby request receipt of court notices and orders via email, instead of U.S. mail, from the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (BNC) through the U.S. Bankruptcy Court's Debtor Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing (DeBN) program.

I understand that this request is limited to receipt of only notices and orders filed by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. I will continue to receive documents filed by all other parties, such as the trustee and creditors, via U.S. mail or in person pursuant to court rules.

I understand that I will receive electronic notice of any documents filed by the court in any current or future bankruptcy or adversary case from any bankruptcy court district in which I am listed with the same name and address, including cases where I am listed as a creditor.

I understand that the first time the BNC receives an email bounce-back (undeliverable email), my DeBN account will be automatically disabled. I will then receive notices and orders via U.S. mail, and I must file an updated request form if I wish to reactivate my account.

I understand that enrollment in DeBN is completely voluntarily, and I may file a request to deactivate my account at any time.

I understand that if I already have an active electronic noticing account, that account will be deactivated by creating this DeBN account.

UPDATE TO ACCOUNT INFORMATION: (Check this box to make changes to your existing DeBN account)

I request the following update(s) to my DeBN account:

I have a new email address as indicated below.

I filed a new bankruptcy case, and I have an existing DeBN account. Please review my account to ensure my name and address in my account match this new case.

I request reactivation of my DeBN account so that I may receive court notices and orders via email, instead of U.S. mail.

REQUEST TO DEACTIVATE ELECTRONIC NOTICING: (Check this box to request deactivation of your DeBN account)

I request deactivation of my DeBN account. I understand that by deactivating my account, I will begin receiving notices and orders filed by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court via U.S. mail, instead of email.

I understand that I will continue to receive electronic notices until such time as the Court has deactivated my account.

I am a debtor in this bankruptcy case, or the debtor's authorized representative if the debtor is a business, and I have read the applicable section check-marked above and understand and agree to the terms and conditions set forth therein. I certify under perjury that the information I am submitting to register for electronic notice is true and correct. Neither the U.S. Bankruptcy Court nor the BNC bears any liability for errors resulting from the information I have submitted on this form.

NOTE: Joint debtors and debtors who already have a DeBN account must file separate request forms for an initial request, account updates and to request account deactivation.

How Do I Request DeBN?

- 1. Go to the court's website to complete the request form: www.neb.uscourts.gov
- 2. Debtors can file a DeBN request form through their attorney electronically, on their own by USPS mail, by email to DeBN@neb.uscourts.gov or present the completed form at the Clerk's Office.
- 3. The clerk's office creates your account.

Activation of your account is now complete, and you will receive a confirmation email from the BNC.

From this point forward, all applicable notices and orders filed by the court will be delivered to you via email, as long as your name and address in the bankruptcy case match your name and address in your DeBN account and there are no email transmission failures.

Keep the Court Advised by Filing an Updated Request Form if You:

- Change your email address;
- File a new case after enrolling in DeBN (so the court can make sure your name and address in your DeBN account match your new case); or
- Wish to deactivate or reactivate your account.

What is DeBN?

DEBTOR ELECTRONIC BANKRUPTCY NOTICING (DeBN) is a FREE and voluntary service that allows debtors to request delivery of applicable court notices and orders from the bankruptcy court, through the BNC, via email instead of U.S. mail.

Who is the BNC?

The BANKRUPTCY NOTICING CENTER (BNC) provides services to the bankruptcy court by sending court notices and orders to the parties by either mail or email.

What are Court Notices and Orders?

Court notices and orders refer to the documents filed by the bankruptcy court, which may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Notice of Meeting of Creditors (Provides the date/time/location of the 341 meeting)
- Notice of Requirement For Financial Management Course
- Order Discharging Debtor

Who Will Serve Me via Email?

By enrolling in DeBN, a debtor consents ONLY to service of court notices and orders filed by the bankruptcy court. The BNC, on the bankruptcy court's behalf, will prepare and send the emails.

No other parties, such as creditors and trustees, are allowed to use the DeBN program to email debtors—all other parties will continue to serve documents upon the debtor via U.S. mail.

Length of Enrollment in DeBN:

A DeBN account remains active, unless:

- Debtor's account is automatically disabled due to an email transmission failure (email bounce-back); or
- Debtor files a request to deactivate the account. A debtor may file this request at any time.

As long as the debtor's DeBN account is active, all applicable court notices and orders will be emailed to the debtor by the BNC in any bankruptcy or adversary case from any district in which the debtor's name and address matches the name and address in the debtor's DeBN account. This name/address match includes cases where the debtor may be listed as a creditor.

How it Works:

Once the debtor files a DeBN request form, the clerk's office creates the DeBN account. Immediately thereafter, when the court files a notice or order and sends it to the BNC for service upon the debtor, the BNC will email the notice to the debtor at the end of the day. The court notice or order will be emailed as a single PDF attachment, and a separate email will be sent for each court notice or order that has been filed. Note: The debtor receives only those notices/orders that the court serves upon the debtor.

There is no limit to the number of times the debtor may view the PDF attachment, print the attachment, save it to his or her computer, or simply retain the email for viewing at any time.

If the PDF attachment exceeds 8 MB, the notice will be sent to the debtor by U.S. mail instead of email.
