)
Amendments to Local Rules Regarding)
Chapter 12 Cases)

General Order 25-03

James A. Overcash, the standing Chapter 12 trustee, resigned effective immediately. The United States Trustee's office seeks to appoint John Stalnaker as Chapter 12 trustee on a case-by-case basis under 11 U.S.C. § 1202(a), which the court approves in all existing cases. A case-by-case trustee is compensated in a different manner than a standing Chapter 12 trustee. Unless and until a standing Chapter 12 trustee is appointed, any case-by-case Chapter 12 trustee will be compensated under 11 U.S.C. § 326(b) in all existing cases and future cases. The following revisions to the Local Rules are adopted:

Local Rule 3015-1(C)

Local Rule 3015-1(C) is deleted.

Local Rule 3020-1(A)

Local Rule 3020-1(A) is modified to state (additions underlined):

A. Deposit. The debtor in a case under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 or Chapter 12 must pay the trustee an advance fee and expense deposit within five days after the petition is filed and in a case under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 each month thereafter until a Subchapter V plan is confirmed. The amount to be paid is stated in Appendix H. The trustee must keep the advance deposit in a segregated account. The trustee may apply the advance deposit to any trustee compensation approved by the court. The trustee must return any excess amount to the debtor within ten business days after the court approves the trustee's final application for compensation. The debtor must include the amounts paid under this Local Rule in the debtor's proposed cash collateral budget.

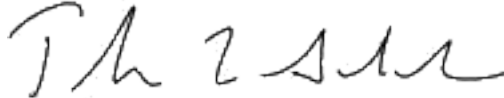

Appendix H

The provisions regarding Chapter 12 contained within Appendix H are deleted and replaced with:

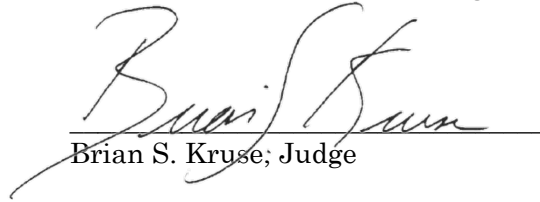

Chapter 12

The advance deposit the debtor must pay the trustee in a case under Chapter 12 is $1,000.
