

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

IN RE:)
CARL R. NELSON)
Debtor.)

BK 83-2087
CV 86-0-693

ORDER William L. Olson, Clerk
By _____ Deputy

This matter is before the Court on appeal from the Bankruptcy Court. The debtor, Carl R. Nelson, is appealing the order of the Bankruptcy Court dated July 31, 1986, lifting the automatic stay in behalf of the Travelers Insurance Company. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334 and 1408.

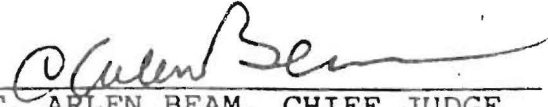

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8013, this Court must view findings of fact under the clearly erroneous standard. An adequate protection issue is a factual question. In re Martin, 761 F.2d 472, 474 (8th Cir. 1985). The Court has thoroughly reviewed the record and briefs in this case. The Court is of the opinion that based on the facts as set forth in the Bankruptcy order, the Bankruptcy Court was not clearly erroneous in lifting the stay under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) and § 361.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that this appeal should be and hereby is dismissed.

DATED this 12th day of May, 1987.

BY THE COURT:

C. ARLEN BEAM, CHIEF JUDGE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
