PREFACE

Corporations and partnerships must have an attorney to file a bankruptcy case. Individuals, however, may represent themselves in bankruptcy court. While individuals can file a bankruptcy case without an attorney or “pro se,” it is extremely difficult to do it successfully.

This guide has been put together to answer some of the most often asked questions of the clerk’s office staff by debtors filing bankruptcy pro-se (without legal representation). This guide is in no way intended to advise you of your legal rights or responsibilities under bankruptcy or to inform you on which chapter to file. The bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described, and you should, if possible, seek the advice of an attorney.

The excerpts from the Bankruptcy Court’s Local Rules are provided to make you, as a pro-se debtor, aware of rules you should closely follow. A copy of the Bankruptcy Court’s Local Rules can be obtained at either of the Bankruptcy Court locations or through our internet address at www.neb.uscourts.gov. We have also included information provided by the Office of the U.S. Trustee regarding the possible consequences of filing a bankruptcy petition under Chapter 7.

If you do decide to file bankruptcy without the benefit of counsel or use of a document preparation service, be aware that a “bankruptcy petition preparer,” as defined in 11 U.S.C. section 110, is subject to strict regulations which include requirements that the preparer sign any papers prepared on behalf of the debtor, include identification of the individuals who prepared the papers and furnish the debtor with a copy of the documents prepared.

While the information presented is accurate as of the date of publication, it should not be cited or relied upon as legal authority. It should not be used as a substitute for reference to the United States Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. Finally, this publication should not substitute for the advice of competent legal counsel.

It is very important that a bankruptcy case be filed and handled correctly. The rules are very technical, and a misstep may affect a debtor’s rights. For example, a debtor whose case is dismissed for failure to file a required document, such as a credit counseling certificate, may lose the right to file another case or lose protections in a later case, including the benefit of the automatic stay. Bankruptcy has long-term financial and legal consequences — hiring a competent attorney is strongly recommended.

Bankruptcy fraud is a felony under federal criminal law, and may result in arrest, fine, or imprisonment. In the event of fraud during any bankruptcy proceeding, such as the hiding of assets, or the failure of the debtor to obey a lawful order of the court, the discharge can be denied or revoked.

The clerk’s office is prohibited by 28 U.S.C. Section 955 from giving legal advice or assisting with the preparation of forms.

PRIVACY ACT INFORMATION

PRIVACY RULES

1. Redacted Documents. To comply with the policy of the Judicial Conference of the United States and the E-Government Act of 2002, effective December 1, 2003, filing parties shall omit or, where inclusion is necessary, partially redact the following personal data identifiers from all pleadings, documents, and exhibits, whether filed electronically or in paper, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or required statute, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure or the Official Bankruptcy Forms.
 - a. Minors' names. If the involvement of a minor child must be mentioned, only the minor's initials should be used.
 - b. Financial account numbers. If the financial account numbers are relevant, only the last four numbers of the account number should be used.
 - c. Social Security numbers. If an individual's Social Security Number is relevant in a pleading, only the last four digits of that number should be used. Official Form B21, Statement of Social Security Number, should contain the full Social Security Number and should be processed as prescribed by the Court. This statement is not part of the public record and will not be available to the public.
 - d. Dates of birth. If an individual's date of birth must be included in a pleading, only the year should be used.
 - e. Other data as permitted by order of the Court.
2. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers rests solely with counsel and the parties. The Clerk's Office will not review documents for compliance with this rule or redact documents, whether filed electronically or in paper. In addition, the Court will not go back and redact documents filed before December 1, 2003.

DUTIES OF DEBTOR (RULE 4002)

A. In General.

1. Attend and submit to an examination at the times ordered by the Court.
 - If a Pro Se Debtor (not represented by an attorney) fails to appear at the originally scheduled §341 meeting, the trustee will notify the United States Trustee's office who will file a certificate of service with the court.
2. Attend the hearing on a complaint objecting to discharge and testify, if called as a witness.
3. Inform the trustee immediately in writing as to the location of real property in which the debtor has an interest and the name and address of every person holding money or property subject to the debtor's withdrawal or order if a schedule of property has not yet been filed pursuant to Rule 1007.
4. Cooperate with the trustee in the preparation of an inventory, the examination of proofs of claim, and the administration of the estate.
5. File a statement of any change of the debtor's address.

B. Individual debtor's duty to provide documentation.

1. Personal Identification. Every individual debtor shall bring to the meeting of creditors under § 341:
 - a. A picture identification issued by a governmental unit, or other personal identifying information that establishes the debtor's identity.
 - b. Evidence of social security number(s), or a written statement that such documentation does not exist.
2. Financial Information. Every individual debtor shall bring to the meeting of creditors under § 341 and make available to the trustee the following documents or copies of them, or provide a written statement that the documentation does not exist or is not in the debtor's possession:
 - a. Evidence of current income such as the most recent pay stub.
 - b. Unless the trustee or the United States trustee instructs otherwise, statements for each of the debtor's depository and investment accounts, including checking, savings, and money market accounts, mutual funds and brokerage accounts for the time period that includes the date of the filing of the petition.
 - c. Documentation of monthly expenses claimed by the debtor when required by § 707(b)(2)(A) or (B).
3. Tax Return. At least 7 days before the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341, the debtor shall provide to the trustee a copy of the debtor's Federal Income Tax Return for the most recent tax year ending immediately before the commencement of the case and for which a return was filed, including any attachments, or a transcript of the tax return, or provide a written statement that the documentation does not exist.
4. Tax Returns Provided to Creditors. If a creditor, at least 15 days before the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341, requests a copy of the debtor's tax return that is to be provided to the trustee under subdivision (b)(3), the debtor shall provide to the requesting creditor a copy of the return, including any attachment, or a transcript of the tax return, or provide a written statement that the documentation does not exist at least 7 days before the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341.
5. The debtor's obligation to provide tax returns under Rule 4002(b)(3) and (b)(4) is subject to procedures for safeguarding the confidentiality of tax information established by the Director of Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

CHAPTER INFORMATION

Chapter 7: Liquidation of Available Assets

The purpose of a chapter 7 liquidation is to allow a debtor with too much debt to obtain a fresh start, free from creditor harassment and free from the worries and pressures of too much debt. See H. Rep. No. 95-595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess., 125 (1977). This is accomplished through an orderly liquidation of the debtor's assets by a trustee and the equitable distribution of all non-exempt assets to creditors.

Chapter 9: Securities Investors Protection Act

The purpose of a chapter 9 bankruptcy is to allow a municipal unit to continue operating while it adjusts or refinances creditor claims with minimum loss to its creditors. Because a municipal unit cannot liquidate its assets to satisfy its creditors totally and finally, this chapter gives the municipal debtor a breathing spell from debt collection efforts to allow the debtor to work out a repayment plan for its creditors. See H. Rep. No. 95-595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess., 263 (1977).

Chapter 11: Business Reorganization

The purpose of a chapter 11 business reorganization case is to restructure a business's finances so that it may continue to operate, provide its employees with jobs, pay its creditors, and produce a return for its stockholders. The premise of a business reorganization is that assets that are used for production in the industry for which they were designed are more valuable than those same assets sold for scrap.

Chapter 12: Adjustment of Debts of a Family Farmer with Regular Income

The purpose of a chapter 12 is to assist those family farmers who have the true potential to reorganize and to allow them relief from a heavy debt burden, but yet allow family farmers to pay creditors what is reasonable under the economic circumstances. 132 Cong. Rec. S15075 (Oct. 3, 1986) (Remarks of Sen. Thurmond). It is designed to meet the needs of the family farmer while preserving the rights of farm lenders. It is modeled primarily after chapter 13 but contains chapter 11 features as well.

Under Chapter 12, you must file a plan with the court to repay your creditors all or part of the money you owe them using future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts is usually three (3) years, but not more than five (5) years. This plan must be approved by the court before it can take effect.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income

The purpose of chapter 13 is to enable individuals with regular incomes, under court supervision and protection, to develop and perform under a plan for the repayment of debts over an extended period. The plan may call for full or partial repayment.

During the repayment period, creditors may not harass the debtor or seek to collect their debts from the debtor or any co-debtor. They must receive payments only under the plan. This protection relieves the debtor from indirect and direct pressures from creditors and enables the debtor to provide support for self and family while repaying creditors at the same time. See H. Rep. No. 95-595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess., 118 (1977).

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

Under Chapter 13, you must file a plan with the court to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. Usually, the period allowed by the court to repay your debts is three (3) years, but not more than five (5) years. Your plan must be approved by the court before it can take effect.

Chapter 15: Ancillary and Other Cross-Border Cases

Chapter 15, which replaces the former section 304 of the Code, is an entire new chapter. The new chapter encourages cooperation between the United States and foreign countries in connection with international insolvency cases.

CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENTS PER 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)

Under the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 (BAPCPA), which was enacted on April 20, 2005, all individual debtors who file bankruptcy on or after October 17, 2005, must undergo credit counseling within six months before they file bankruptcy and must complete a financial management instructional course after they file bankruptcy. With certain exceptions, an individual is not eligible to file bankruptcy without completing credit counseling and is not eligible to receive a bankruptcy discharge without completing a financial management instructional course.

A. Requirements Prior to Filing Bankruptcy

To be eligible for filing under any chapter, a debtor must participate in an individual or group briefing conducted by an approved, non-profit budget/credit counseling service in the 180-day period prior to the filing of bankruptcy.

1. 11 U.S.C. § 521(b) requires that a debtor, who is an individual, shall file with the court a certificate and debt repayment plan (if applicable) from the approved nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency.
 - a. The Credit Counseling Agency will give you the Certificate. You must file this certificate and any debt repayment plan with the Court at the time of filing the petition.
 - b. Approved agency listing can be found at: <https://www.justice.gov/ust/list-credit-counseling-agencies-approved-pursuant-11-usc-111>
2. There are three (3) exceptions to this rule:
 - a. For debtors who reside in judicial districts for which the United States Trustee has determined that such services are not readily available; Please refer to the Trustee's Website for more information <https://www.justice.gov/ust>.
 - b. For debtors who can demonstrate exigent circumstances that warrant a waiver. Debtors who are granted waivers are given 30 days from the date of filing to meet the requirement.
 - c. For debtors who are incapacitated, disable, or on active military duty in a combat zone (with limiting definitions for incapacity and disability).
3. An individual may be allowed to file bankruptcy without a briefing by a credit counselor if there are exigent circumstances that merit a waiver of the requirements. To obtain a waiver, the individual must submit a certification to the Court describing the exigent circumstances and stating that they requested credit counseling services from an approved credit counseling agency but were unable to obtain the services within 5 days. If a waiver is granted, the Debtor must attend a briefing within 30 days (plus 15 more if granted by the Court) after the petition is filed.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT COURSE UNDER 11 U.S.C. § § 727 AND 1328

Individuals filing under chapters 7 and 13 must complete an approved financial management course (subject to exceptions set forth below) in order to receive a discharge.

- A. The court shall not grant a discharge under § 727(a)(11) or § 1328 (g)(1) if the debtor fails to complete an approved instructional course concerning personal financial management.
1. The list of agencies approved to conduct financial management courses will be compiled by the United States Trustee (UST). That list can be found at <https://www.justice.gov/ust/list-credit-counseling-agencies-approved-pursuant-11-usc-111> (instructional course concerning personal financial management). The clerk will not be responsible for ensuring that the financial management course was conducted by an approved service (an objection to this may be raised by the trustee or other third party.)
 2. There are specific exceptions to this requirement, including:
 - a. if the debtor is unable to complete the financial management requirement as a result of incapacity or disability; or
 - b. if the debtor is on active military duty in an active combat zone; or
 - c. if the UST has determined that adequate financial management services are not available in the district.
 3. Upon completion of the Financial Management Course, the debtor shall:
 - a. File the certification with the Court.
 - b. The debtor will receive the Certificate of Completion of Financial Management from the agency providing the course.
 - c. The certification must be filed within 60 days of the date of the first scheduled 341 meeting of creditors for Chapter 7 Cases, and by the date of the last payment for Chapter 13 Cases.
 - d. The Certificate of Completion of instructional course concerning personal financial management must be filed in all individual Chapter 13 and Chapter 7 cases even if the US Trustee has not approved any agencies for the applicable district.
- B. If the debtor fails to submit the required certification regarding financial management, the case will be closed without the discharge being granted.
- C. The debtor can subsequently move to reopen the case to request that the discharge be granted. The debtor will be required to pay the fee to reopen the case.

MEANS TESTING UNDER 11 U.S.C. §707

The means testing mechanism presumes abuse in individual cases if, after subjecting a petition to financial analysis, it is determined that the debtor could repay a threshold level of general unsecured debt.

This computation is based in large on two elements:

1. The debtor's current monthly income (generally, income from all sources, including contributions by others to household expenses but excluding Social Security benefits).
2. Allowed deductions, utilizing an IRS standard for expenses, as well as several other highly detailed expense standards.

In order to comply with the means test requirements, all individual debtors (individual chapter 7 consumer debtor, each individual debtor in a joint case, individual chapter 11 debtor, and all chapter 13 debtors) will complete the appropriate form "Statement of Current Monthly Income and Disposable Income Calculation". The forms are as follows:

1. Chapter 7 Debtors will use Bankruptcy Form B122A.
2. Chapter 11 Debtors will use Bankruptcy Form B122B.
3. Chapter 13 Debtors will use Bankruptcy Form B122C.

The clerk's office is not required to review any of the calculations provided by the debtor in the means test documents for accuracy, completeness, etc.

MEANS TEST FILING REQUIREMENTS

A. In General

1. The Means Test documents shall be completed and filed at the same time the Petition is filed.
2. If the documents are not filed with the Petition, the Clerk's office will enter a specific deadline on the docket in which to file the required documents.
3. A debtor must enter income and expense information onto the appropriate form and then make calculations using the entered information. Some of the information needed to complete the forms comes from the Census Bureau and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). This information can be found on the United States Trustee's Website www.justice.gov/ust.
4. The forms can be downloaded from the Court's website at: www.neb.uscourts.gov/forms.

PETITION FILING REQUIREMENTS PER LOCAL RULE 1002-1

A. Specific Requirements of Content of Voluntary Petition

1. The petition shall conform to the Official Bankruptcy Forms which can be purchased at various office supply stores. The forms are also available at the clerk's office for a fee or by accessing our internet address www.neb.uscourts.gov.
2. If the debtor is a corporation, attached to the petition shall be a certified copy of the corporation action authorizing the filing of the petition.
3. The petition shall include the tax identification numbers used by a corporation, partnership, an individual and by a sole proprietorship, if different from individual tax identification number.
4. Rule 1005 provides that the caption of the petition includes only the final four digits of the debtor's Social Security Number. The debtor is required to file "Form B121 - Statement of Social Security" with the Court at the time of filing. The Form can be found on the Court's website www.neb.uscourts.gov.

B. The court requires only the original of any filing. The debtor is required to mail a copy to the Trustee.

MISCELLANEOUS PETITION FILING REQUIREMENTS BY THE COURT

- A. It is very important to retain your bankruptcy papers. Copies can be obtained later, but at an expense to you.
- B. Assembling your paperwork should entail the petition page on top. All other schedules and statements can be stapled to the back of the petition and signature pages.
- C. Schedules can either be filed with the petition or within fourteen (14) days of filing the petition.
- D. Personal checks from the debtor are not accepted. Acceptable methods of payment by the debtor(s) must be in the form of a money order or cashier's check. Cash is not accepted.

The fees for filing bankruptcy can be located at the Court's internet website at www.neb.uscourts.gov. All payments for Bankruptcy filings, must be made at or sent to the United States Bankruptcy Court, 111 South 18th Plaza, Suite 1125, Omaha, NE 68102-1321.

MATRIX FILING REQUIREMENTS PER LOCAL RULE 1007-2:

A. Filing Matrix

1. Each voluntary petition must be accompanied by a list of creditors, lessors interest holders set forth in alphabetical order (the “Matrix”). The matrix shall include the mailing address and zip code for each creditor and shall be typewritten in a format approved by the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court.
2. In all Ch. 7, 12 and 13 cases, the IRS shall be listed only if debtor believes a tax owing. In all Ch. 11 cases, whether or not the IRS is known to be a creditor, the IRS shall be listed on the matrix at the address shown on Appendix “A” to this guide.
3. In all cases, where the Nebraska Dept. of Revenue is known to be a creditor and in all Ch. 11 cases, whether or not the NE Dept. of Revenue is known to be a creditor, the NE Dept. of Revenue shall be listed on the matrix at the address shown on Appendix “A” to this guide.
4. In all cases, the county attorney and county treasurer from the county in which the debtor resides, shall be listed on the matrix.

MISCELLANEOUS MATRIX FILING REQUIREMENTS BY THE COURT:

- A. The matrix must be filed with the petition on the date of filing.
- B. Lists should be typed or legibly written. Avoid use of a boldface setting.
- C. Lists should be typed on a single page in a single column (rather than in three columns) with a double space between each creditor (a sample is shown on the next page).
- D. DO NOT include the debtor, joint debtor or the attorney for debtor’s name (if applicable) on the matrix since they are automatically added by our system.
- E. Avoid any extra marks on the list such as letterhead, dates, account numbers, debtor’s name, coffee stains or handwritten marks. Also, avoid non-standard 8x11 paper or colored paper.

HEARINGS ON REAFFIRMATION AGREEMENTS

- A. All reaffirmation agreements filed with the Court must comply as follows:
1. Reaffirmation agreements filed with the Court shall be in compliance with Official Form B 2400A/B ALT.
 2. Reaffirmation hearings may be scheduled at the Court's discretion.
- B. All motions to approve Reaffirmation agreements and the Reaffirmation agreements must be filed as separate documents and shall not be combined in one document or filed as an attachment.

CHAPTER 12 REQUIREMENTS

1. Certification by Debtor in Support of Confirmation (Appendix M). In a Chapter 12 or a Chapter 13 Case, the debtor must file a certification certifying payment of domestic support obligations with the court at least seven days prior to the expiration of the Objection to Confirmation deadline. A certification must be filed prior to confirmation of all original plans and all amended plans and all post-confirmation amended plans. If the certification is not filed with the court, the confirmation or approval order may be denied. The certification should not be filed before the applicable plan is filed.
2. Certification by Debtor in Support of Discharge Regarding Payment of Domestic Support Obligations (Appendix I). The Court shall not grant a discharge of all debts provided for in the plan or disallowed under 11 U.S.C. Section 502, in a Chapter 12 case of a debtor who is required by a judicial or administrative order, or by statute, to pay a domestic support obligation unless such debtor certifies that all amounts payable under such order or such statute that are due on or before the date of said certification have been paid as referenced in 11 U.S.C. Section 1228(a). Therefore, prior to the expiration of the 9013 deadline on the Motion for Discharge, the debtor(s) must file the Certification by Debtor in Support of Discharge Regarding Payment of Domestic Support Obligations with the court or the case may be closed without a discharge. In such an event, a Motion to Reopen (with payment of the full filing fee) may be needed to permit filing of the certificate.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

CHAPTER 13 REQUIREMENT

- A. Chapter 13 Plans shall be in substantial conformity with the form found on the Court's website www.neb.uscourts.gov.
- B. Timely Filing of Plan, Schedules and Statement of Affairs. The Chapter 13 Plan, Schedules and Statement of Affairs must be filed within the time authorized by the Bankruptcy Code or the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. If these required documents are not timely filed, and no motion for an extension of time has been filed, the Chapter 13 Trustee or United States Trustee will file a Notification of Debtor's Failure to Comply and the case will be dismissed without further notice or hearing.
- C. Plan Filed with the Petition. If the Plan is filed with the Petition, the debtor shall serve the Plan, with a resistance date of fourteen days after the conclusion of the "Meeting of Creditors." The debtor will not have the exact date of the "Meeting of Creditors" when the Petition and Plan are filed. Therefore, the notice may state, "Any resistance to the Plan must be filed no later than fourteen days after the conclusion of the "Meeting of Creditors."
- D. Plan Not Filed with the Petition. If the Plan is not filed with the Petition, it shall be filed and served, with appropriate resistance date. No resistance date required under Neb. R. Bankr. P. 9013-1 shall be set for a date earlier than fourteen days after the conclusion of the "Meeting of Creditors".
- E. Certification by Debtor in Support of Confirmation (Appendix M). The debtor must file a certification certifying payment of domestic support obligations with the court prior to the expiration of the Objection to Confirmation deadline. A certification must be filed prior to confirmation of all original plans, amended plans and post-confirmation amended plans. If the certification is not filed with the court, the confirmation order may be denied. The certification should not be filed before the applicable plan is filed. The form can be found on the Court's Website: www.neb.uscourts.gov.
- F. Confirmation. If a timely resistance/objection is filed, the Debtor has fourteen days after the objection to confirmation deadline to file a response with the court. All responses shall set forth specific factual and legal details and conclude with a request for relief. Any response that fails to include specific factual and legal details will not be considered. Upon filing of the Debtor's response to the objection to confirmation the court, at its discretion, may schedule a confirmation hearing or rule without further notice or hearing.
 - 1. If the Debtor fails to file a timely response to the objection to confirmation or files a response that lacks specific factual and legal details, the court will enter an order sustaining the objection and denying confirmation of the Debtor's plan, and the Debtor will be ordered to file an amended plan in 21 days.
 - 2. If the objection to confirmation is settled, the parties must notify the Courtroom Department of the settlement or file an amended plan, prior to the expiration of the Debtor's response deadline.
 - 3. If no timely objections to confirmation are filed, the clerk shall enter a text-only order confirming the plan. No confirmation order shall be entered before the Meeting of Creditors has been concluded.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

4. If the Debtor, after consultation with the Trustee or a creditor, desires specific order language, agreed to by the parties, counsel shall notify the Courtroom department, by email or telephone and request permission to submit such an order. All confirmation orders submitted shall be in conformity with the Local Rules.
- G. Extension of Time to File Plan. If an extension of time to file a Plan is granted and the Plan is not filed and noticed at least fifteen days prior to the first date set for the Meeting of Creditors, the Chapter 13 Trustee will continue the Meeting of Creditors. Notice of the rescheduled meeting of creditors shall be sent by the debtor to all creditors and parties requesting notice and a certificate of service shall be filed with the Court. If the Plan is not filed at least fifteen days prior to the second date set for the Meeting of Creditors, the Chapter 13 Trustee or United States Trustee will file a Notification of Debtor's Failure to Comply and the case will be dismissed without further notice or hearing.
- H. Certification by Debtor in Support of Discharge Regarding (1) Payment of Domestic Support Obligations and (2) Discharges in Prior Cases (Appendix L). The Court shall not grant a discharge of all debts provided for in the plan or disallowed under 11 U.S. C. Section 502, in a Chapter 13 case of a debtor who is required by a judicial or administrative order, or by statute, to pay a domestic support obligation unless such debtor certifies that all amounts payable under such order or such statute that are due on or before the date of said certification have been paid as referenced in 11 U.S.C. section 1328(a). Further, the Court shall not grant a discharge of all debts provided for in the plan or disallowed under 11 U.S.C. section 502, in a Chapter 13 case of the debtor who has received a previous discharge as referenced in 11 U.S.C. Section 1328(f)(1) and (2).
- Therefore, within 14 days after the Trustee files the "Certificate of Final Payment," the debtor(s) must file the Certification by Debtor in Support of Discharge Regarding (1) Payment of Domestic Support Obligations and (2) Discharges in Prior Cases with the Court or the case may be closed without a discharge (Appendix L). In such event, a Motion to Reopen (with payment of the full filing fee) may be needed to permit filing of the certificate. The form can be found on the Court's website: www.neb.uscourts.gov.
- I. Local Rules. Chapter 13 cases can be complicated and hard to understand. Refer to the Court's Local Rules at www.neb.uscourts.gov for more specific requirements regarding chapter 13 cases.

ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

Certain categories of relief may be granted in a bankruptcy court only through an adversary proceeding. The usual focus of the adversary proceeding is a trial of the allegations made by the plaintiff against the defendant.

The first step in commencing an adversary proceeding is the filing of a complaint, setting forth the facts and allegations which the plaintiff believes justify the granting of relief against the defendant, and stating the relief which the plaintiff seeks. As each complaint is unique, there is no specific form provided by the court. Each complaint must be accompanied by an adversary cover sheet. This form can be downloaded from the Court's Website: www.neb.uscourts.gov by clicking on our Pro Se page link. The form is listed as AP Cover Sheet. You may also obtain the AP cover sheet at the Clerk's Office.

The summons is the notice which accompanies the complaint, advising of the names of the parties, the court in which the adversary proceeding was filed, and the time limits for responding to the complaint.

The summons is prepared and issued by the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court. The plaintiff's attorney is responsible for serving the summons and a copy of the complaint upon the defendant(s). If the plaintiff does not have an attorney, the pro se plaintiff is responsible for serving the summons and complaint upon the defendant(s).

Applicable Law and Rules

1. In general, Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7001 requires that an adversary proceeding be commenced 1) to recover money or property; 2) to determine the validity, priority, or extent of a lien or other interest in property; 3) to obtain court approval for the sale of both the interest of the estate and of a co-owner of property; 4) to object to or revoke a discharge; 5) to revoke an order of confirmation of a plan; 6) to determine the dischargeability of a debt; 7) to obtain an injunction; 8) to subordinate an allowed claim or interest; 9) to obtain a declaratory judgment relating to any of the foregoing; or 10) to determine a claim or cause of action removed from a state court pursuant to section 1452 of title 28 (28 U.S.C. § 1452).
2. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7004 adopts portions of Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and sets forth other provisions for the issuance and service of a summons. These rules are detailed, complex and should be read in their entirety.
3. Rule 4(a) specifies the information that the plaintiff's attorney (or the plaintiff) must provide on the summons form. Rule 4(b) provides that, upon or after the filing of the complaint, the clerk shall issue the summons to the plaintiff's attorney (or the plaintiff). It is then the responsibility of the plaintiff's attorney (or the plaintiff) to serve the summons on the defendant.
4. If the debtor is the plaintiff, section 342(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 342(c)) requires that the debtor's name, address, Social Security number and taxpayer identification number (if any) be included in the caption. Official Form 16C may be used for this purpose.
5. A copy of the complaint must be served with the summons. Rule 4(c).

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

6. The Clerk will issue the summons. The plaintiff will be responsible for making additional copies. Of course, if there is more than one defendant, each must be served with a separate copy of the summons and complaint.
7. The summons and complaint may be served in a variety of ways which are set forth in Rules 7004 and 4. When the defendant is an individual, other than an infant or incompetent person, the easiest method is for the summons and complaint to be mailed by first class mail postage prepaid to the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode or to the place where the individual regularly conducts a business or profession. Rule 7004(b)(1).
8. Rule 7004(h) provides that service on a bank, savings and loan, or other insured depository institution in a contested matter or adversary proceeding must be made by certified mail addressed to an officer of the institution unless one of three exceptions applies. Those exceptions are 1) the attorney for the depository institution has filed a paper in the matter or has otherwise entered his or her appearance, 2) the court, following the procedure set out in the rule, orders otherwise, and 3) the depository institution has waived the requirement in writing by designating an officer to receive service. (Insured depository institutions are defined in section 3 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. § 1813).)
9. Because of the exceptions and the placement of the certified mail requirement in Rule 7004 rather than Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, the requirement applies in an adversary proceeding only to the service of the summons and complaint or the service of the third-party summons and third-party complaint and only if the depository institution is a defendant or third-party defendant.
10. Service must be made by someone who is not a party, and who is at least 18 years of age. Rule 7004(a).
11. The summons and complaint may be served anywhere in the United States. Rule 7004(d).
12. The summons and complaint must be served within fourteen days of the issuance of the summons. Service is complete upon mailing, not upon delivery by the Postal Service. If more than fourteen days pass before service is completed, a new summons must be issued and served. Rule 7004(e) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006(e).
13. If the summons and complaint are not served within 120 days of the filing of the complaint, the court may dismiss the action. Rule 4(m).
14. On the back of the summons is a certificate of service of the summons. After service has been made, this certificate should be completed, and filed with the court. The Court requires a certificate for each defendant that was served.
15. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7012(a) provides that once a complaint is served, the defendant has 30 days after the issuance of the summons to file an answer or make one of the motions specified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 12 (made applicable by Rule 7012(b)). If the United States or one of its agencies or officers is the defendant, the time to file an answer or make a motion is 35 days. The court can order these time limits shortened or extended. If such an order is entered, the new time limit will be stated in the summons.

Certificate of Service

1. Line 1 (name) is to be completed with the full name of the person who served the summons and complaint.
2. Line 4 (date) is to be completed with the month, day and year service was perfected.
3. The appropriate box should be checked to show how service was made.

If mail service, state the mailing address, city, state and zip code of the place to which the summons and complaint were mailed.

If personal service, state both the name of the person to whom the summons and complaint were given, and the address at which this occurred.

If residence service, state both the name of the adult to whom the summons and complaint were given, and the address at which this occurred.

If certified mail service on an insured depository institution, state both the name of the officer to whom the summons and complaint were mailed and the mailing address, city, state, and zip code to which service was mailed.

If service by publication, describe the steps taken to perfect service.

If service was made pursuant to state law, fill in the blank with the name of state under whose laws the summons and complaint were served, and describe briefly the method of service, including the name of the person served and the address at which the person was served.

4. Date: - Insert on this line the month, day, and year the certificate is signed.
5. Signature: - The person who completed service of the summons and complaint must sign. This must be an ORIGINAL signature.
6. In the box directly below the Date and Signature lines, print or type the name and address of the person who signed the certificate.

General Information

1. The plaintiff's attorney (or the plaintiff) is responsible for serving the summons and complaint, not the clerk.
2. There is no charge for the issuance of a summons, beyond the fee for commencing the adversary proceeding. See the Court's Website for the adversary filing fee. There is no fee due if the debtor files the adversary.
3. There are a series of deadlines for actions to be taken in the adversary proceeding. The most important of these are:
 - a. If the summons is not served within fourteen days, a new summons must be issued. Rule 7004(e). Request must be made in writing to the Court to request an Alias Summons.
 - b. If no summons is served within 120 days, the court is authorized by Rule 4(m) to dismiss the adversary proceeding on its own motion, after notice to the plaintiff.
 - c. If the defendant does not answer or make a motion pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P.7012 within 30 days, or such time as court may fix, the plaintiff may seek the entry of a default. (See form B 260). The United States, its agencies, and its officers have 35 days to answer or make a motion.

U.S. as a Creditor or Party per Local Rule 2002-3:

- A. If one or more of the departments or agencies of the U.S. is a creditor, as listed on Appendix A, the summary of assets and liabilities and the matrix shall list such departments or agencies at the address indicated on Appendix "A" to this guide.

Statement of Information Required by 11 U.S.C. § 341

Introduction

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1994, the Office of the U.S. Trustee, U.S. Department of Justice, has prepared this information sheet to help you understand some of the possible consequences of filing a bankruptcy petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This information is intended to make you aware of –

- the potential consequences of seeking a discharge in bankruptcy, including the effects on credit history;
- the effect of receiving a discharge of debts;
- the effect of reaffirming a debt; and
- your ability to file a petition under a different Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

There are many other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code that may affect your situation. This information sheet contains only general principles of law and does not a substitute for legal advice. If you have questions or need further information as to how the bankruptcy laws apply to your specific case, you should consult with an attorney.

WHAT IS A DISCHARGE?

The filing of a Chapter 7 petition is designed to result in a discharge of most of the debts you listed on your bankruptcy schedules. A discharge is a court order that says you do not have to repay your debts, but there are a number of exceptions. Debts which may not be discharged in your Chapter 7 case include, for example, most taxes, child support, alimony, and student loans; court-ordered fines and restitution; debts obtained through fraud or deception; and personal injury debts caused by driving while intoxicated or taking drugs. Your discharge may be denied entirely if you, for example, destroy or conceal property; destroy, conceal, or falsify records; or make a false oath. Creditors cannot ask you to pay any debts which have been discharged. You can only receive a Chapter 7 discharge once every eight (8) years.

WHAT ARE THE POTENTIAL EFFECTS OF A DISCHARGE?

The fact that you filed bankruptcy can appear on your credit report for as long as 10 years. Thus, filing a bankruptcy petition may affect your ability to obtain credit in the future. Also, you may not be excused from repaying any debts that were not listed on your bankruptcy schedules or that you incurred after you filed bankruptcy.

WHAT ARE THE EFFECTS OF REAFFIRMING A DEBT?

After you file your petition, a creditor may ask you to reaffirm a certain debt or you may seek to do so on your own. Reaffirming a debt means that you sign and file with the court a legally enforceable document, which states that you promise to repay all or a portion of the debt that may otherwise have been discharged in your bankruptcy case.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

Reaffirmation agreements are strictly voluntary - - they are not required by the Bankruptcy Code or other state or federal law. You can voluntarily repay any debt instead of signing a reaffirmation agreement, but there may be valid reasons for wanting to reaffirm a particular debt.

Reaffirmation agreements must not impose an undue burden on you or your dependents and must be in your best interest. If you decide to sign a reaffirmation agreement, you may cancel it at any time before the court issues your discharge order or within sixty (60) days after the reaffirmation agreement was filed with the court, whichever is later. If you reaffirm a debt and fail to make the payments required in the reaffirmation agreement, the creditor can take action against you to recover any property that was given as security for the loan and you may remain personally liable for any remaining debt.

OTHER BANKRUPTCY OPTIONS

You have a choice in deciding what Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code will best suit your needs. Even if you have already filed for relief under Chapter 7, you may be eligible to convert your case to a different Chapter.

Chapter 7 is the liquidation chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Under Chapter 7, a trustee is appointed to collect and sell, if economically feasible, all property you own that is not exempt from these actions.

Chapter 11 is the reorganization Chapter most commonly used by businesses, but it is also available to individuals. Creditors vote on whether to accept or reject a plan, which also must be approved by the court. While the debtor normally remains in control of the assets, the court can order the appointment of a trustee to take possession and control of the business.

Chapter 12 offers bankruptcy relief to those who qualify as family farmers and fisherman. Family farmers must propose a plan to repay their creditors over a three-to-five-year period and it must be approved by the court. Plan payments are made through a Chapter 12 Trustee, who also monitors the debtors' farming operations during the pendency of the plan.

Chapter 13 generally permits individuals to keep their property by repaying creditors out of their future income. Each Chapter 13 debtor proposes a plan to repay their creditors over a three-to-five-year period which must be approved by the bankruptcy court. The debtor must pay the Chapter 13 Trustee the amounts set forth in their plan. Debtors receive a discharge after they complete their Chapter 13 repayment plan.

AGAIN, PLEASE SPEAK TO AN ATTORNEY IF YOU NEED FURTHER INFORMATION OR EXPLANATION, INCLUDING HOW THE BANKRUPTCY LAWS RELATE TO YOUR SPECIFIC CASE.

THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

The Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681 - 1681x, was enacted to protect consumers from the transmission of inaccurate information about them, and to establish credit reporting practices that utilize accurate, relevant, and current information in a confidential and responsible manner. The law states that credit reporting agencies may not report a bankruptcy case on a person's credit report after ten years from the date the bankruptcy case is filed. Other bad credit information is removed after seven years. The bankruptcy court has no influence over these reporting policies.

BANKRUPTCY TERMINOLGY

Most debtors who file a bankruptcy petition, and many of their creditors, know very little about the bankruptcy process. This glossary of bankruptcy terminology explains, in layman's terms, many of the legal terms that are used in cases filed under the Bankruptcy Code.

Adversary Proceeding: A lawsuit arising in or related to a bankruptcy case that is commenced by filing a complaint with the court. A nonexclusive list of adversary proceedings is set forth in Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7001.

Assume: An agreement to continue performing duties under a contract or lease.

Automatic Stay: An injunction that automatically stops lawsuits, foreclosures, garnishments, and all collection activity against the debtor the moment a bankruptcy petition is filed.

Bankruptcy: A legal procedure for dealing with debt problems of individuals and businesses; specifically, a case filed under one of the chapters of title 11 of the United States Code (the Bankruptcy Code).

Bankruptcy Administrator: An officer of the judiciary serving in the judicial districts of Alabama and North Carolina who, like the U.S. trustee, is responsible for supervising the administration of bankruptcy cases, estates, and trustees; monitoring plans and disclosure statements; monitoring creditors' committees; monitoring fee applications; and performing other statutory duties. Compare U.S. trustee.

Bankruptcy Code: The informal name for title 11 of the United States Code (11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330), the federal bankruptcy law.

Bankruptcy Court: The bankruptcy judges in regular active service in each federal judicial district; a unit of the district court.

Bankruptcy Estate: All legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property at the time of the bankruptcy filing. (The estate includes all property in which the debtor has an interest, even if it is owned or held by another person.)

Bankruptcy Judge: A judicial officer of the United States district court who is the court official with decision-making power over federal bankruptcy cases.

Bankruptcy Petition: The document filed by the debtor (in a voluntary case) or by creditors (in an involuntary case) by which opens the bankruptcy case. (There are official forms for bankruptcy petitions.)

prior to filing under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code; and (2) the "instructional course in personal financial management" in chapters 7 and 13 that an individual debtor must complete before a discharge is entered. There are exceptions to both requirements for certain categories of debtors, exigent circumstances, or if the U.S. trustee or bankruptcy administrator have determined that there are insufficient approved credit counseling agencies available to provide the necessary counseling.

Chapter 7: The chapter of the Bankruptcy Code providing for "liquidation" (i.e., the sale of a debtor's nonexempt property and the distribution of the proceeds to creditors).

Chapter 9: The chapter of the Bankruptcy Code providing for reorganization of municipalities (which includes cities and towns, as well as villages, counties, taxing districts, municipal utilities, and school districts).

Chapter 11: The chapter of the Bankruptcy Code providing (generally) for reorganization, usually involving a corporation or partnership. A chapter 11 debtor usually proposes a plan of reorganization to keep its business alive and pay creditors over time. People in business or individuals can also seek relief in chapter 11.

Claim: A creditor's assertion of a right to payment from the debtor or the debtor's property.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

Confirmation: Bankruptcy judges' approval of a plan of reorganization or liquidation in chapter 11, or payment plan in chapter 12 or 13.

Consumer Debtor: A debtor whose debts are primarily consumer debts.

Consumer Debts: Debts incurred for personal, as opposed to business, needs.

Contested matter: Those matters, other than objections to claims, that are disputed but are not within the definition of adversary proceeding contained in Rule 7001.

Contingent Claim: A claim that may be owed by the debtor under certain circumstances, e.g., where the debtor is a cosigner on another person's loan and that person fails to pay.

Creditor: One to whom the debtor owes money or who claims to be owed money by the debtor.

Credit Counseling: Refers to two events in individual bankruptcy cases: (1) the "individual or group briefing" from a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency that individual debtors must attend prior to filing under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code; and (2) the "instructional course in personal financial management" in chapters 7 and 13 that an individual debtor must complete before a discharge is entered. There are exceptions to both requirements for certain categories of debtors, exigent circumstances, or if the U.S. trustee or bankruptcy administrator have determined that there are insufficient approved credit counseling agencies available to provide the necessary counseling.

Chapter 12: The chapter of the Bankruptcy Code providing for adjustment of debts of a "family farmer," or a "family fisherman" as those terms are defined in the Bankruptcy Code.

Chapter 13: The chapter of the Bankruptcy Code providing for adjustment of debts of an individual with regular income. (Chapter 13 allows a debtor to keep property and pay debts over time, usually three to five years.)

Chapter 15: The chapter of the Bankruptcy Code dealing with cases of cross-border insolvency.

Creditors' Meeting see 341 meeting

Current Monthly Income: The average monthly income received by the debtor over the six calendar months before commencement of the bankruptcy case, including regular contributions to household expenses from non-debtors and income from the debtor's spouse if the petition is a joint petition, but not including social security income and certain other payments made because the debtor is the victim of certain crimes. 11 U.S.C. § 101(10A).

Debtor: A person who has filed a petition for relief under the Bankruptcy Code.

Debtor Education see credit counseling

Defendant: An individual (or business) against whom a lawsuit is filed.

Discharge: A release of a debtor from personal liability for certain dischargeable debts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code. A discharge releases a debtor from personal liability for certain debts known as dischargeable debts and prevents the creditors owed those debts from taking any action against the debtor to collect the debts. The discharge also prohibits creditors from communicating with the debtor regarding the debt, including telephone calls, letters, and personal contact.

Dischargeable Debt: A debt for which the Bankruptcy Code allows the debtor's personal liability to be eliminated.

Executory Contract or Lease: This includes contracts or leases under which both parties to the agreement have duties remaining to be performed. (If a contract or lease is executory, a debtor may assume it or reject it.)

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

Exemptions, Exempt Property: Certain property owned by an individual debtor that the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law permits the debtor to keep from unsecured creditors. For example, in some states, the debtor may be able to exempt all or a portion of the equity in the debtor's primary residence (homestead exemption), or some or all "tools of the trade" used by the debtor to make a living (i.e., auto tools for an auto mechanic or dental tools for a dentist). The availability and amount of property the debtor may exempt depends on the state the debtor lives in.

Family Farmer or Family Fisherman: An individual, individual and spouse, corporation, or partnership engaged in a farming or fishing operation that meets certain debt limits and other statutory criteria for filing a petition under chapter 12.

Fraudulent Transfer: A transfer of a debtor's property made with intent to defraud or for which the debtor receives less than the transferred property's value.

Fresh Start: The characterization of a debtor's status after bankruptcy, i.e., free of most debts. (Giving debtors a fresh start is one purpose of the Bankruptcy Code.)

Insider (of an individual debtor): Any relative of the debtor or of a general partner of the debtor; partnership in which the debtor is a general partner; general partner of the debtor; or a corporation of which the debtor is a director, officer, or person in control.

Joint Administration: A court-approved mechanism under which two or more cases can be administered together. Assuming no conflicts of interest, these separate businesses or individuals can pool their resources, hire the same professionals, etc.

Joint Petition: One bankruptcy petition filed by a husband and wife together.

Lien: The right to take and hold or sell the property of a debtor as security or payment for a debt or duty.

Liquidation: A sale of a debtor's property with the proceeds to be used for the benefit of creditors.

Liquidated Claim: A creditor's claim for a fixed amount of money.

Means Test: Section 707(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code applies a "means test" to determine whether an individual debtor's chapter 7 filing is presumed to be an abuse of the Bankruptcy Code requiring dismissal or conversion of the case (generally to chapter 13). Abuse is presumed if the debtor's aggregate current monthly income (see definition above) over 5 years, net of certain statutorily allowed expenses is more than (i) $10,000, or (ii) 25% of the debtor's nonpriority unsecured debt, as long as that amount is at least $6,000. The debtor may rebut a presumption of abuse only by a showing of special circumstances that justify additional expenses or adjustments of current monthly income.

Motion to Lift the Automatic Stay: A request by a creditor to allow the creditor to take action against the debtor or the debtor's property that would otherwise be prohibited by the automatic stay.

No-asset case: A chapter 7 case where there are no assets available to satisfy any portion of the creditors' unsecured claims.

Nondischargeable debt: A debt that cannot be eliminated in bankruptcy. Examples include a home mortgage, debts for alimony or child support, certain taxes, debts for most government funded or guaranteed educational loans or benefit overpayments, debts arising from death or personal injury caused by driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs, and debts for restitution or a criminal fine included in a sentence on the debtor's conviction of a crime. Some debts, such as debts for money or property obtained by false pretenses and debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity may be declared nondischargeable only if a creditor timely files and prevails in a nondischargeability action.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

Objection to Dischargeability: A trustee's or creditor's objection to the debtor being released from personal liability for certain dischargeable debts. Common reasons include allegations that the debt to be discharged was incurred by false pretenses or that debt arose because of the debtor's fraud while acting as a fiduciary.

Objection to Exemptions: A trustee's or creditor's objection to the debtor's attempt to claim certain property as exempt from liquidation by the trustee to creditors.

Party in Interest: A party who has standing to be heard by the court in a matter to be decided in the bankruptcy case. The debtor, the U.S. trustee or bankruptcy administrator, the case trustee and creditors are parties in interest for most matters.

Petition Preparer: A business not authorized to practice law that prepares bankruptcy petitions.

Plan: A debtor's detailed description of how the debtor proposes to pay creditors' claims over a fixed period.

Plaintiff: A person or business that files a formal complaint with the court.

Postpetition Transfer: A transfer of the debtor's property made after the commencement of the case.

Prebankruptcy Planning: The arrangement (or rearrangement) of a debtor's property to allow the debtor to take maximum advantage of exemptions. (Prebankruptcy planning typically includes converting nonexempt assets into exempt assets.)

Preference or Preferential debt payment: A debt payment made to a creditor in the 90-day period before a debtor files bankruptcy (or within one year if the creditor was an insider) that gives the creditor more than the creditor would receive in the debtor's chapter 7 case.

Presumption of Abuse see means test priority: The Bankruptcy Code's statutory ranking of unsecured claims that determines the order in which unsecured claims will be paid if there is not enough money to pay all unsecured claims in full. For example, under the Bankruptcy Code's priority scheme, money owed to the case trustee or for prepetition alimony and/or child support must be paid in full before any general unsecured debt (i.e. trade debt or credit card debt) is paid.

Priority Claim: An unsecured claim that is entitled to be paid ahead of other unsecured claims that are not entitled to priority status. Priority refers to the order in which these unsecured claims are to be paid.

Proof of Claim: A written statement and verifying documentation filed by a creditor that describes the reason the debtor owes the creditor money. (There is an official form for this purpose.)

Property of the estate: All legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case.

Reaffirmation Agreement: An agreement by a chapter 7 debtor to continue paying a dischargeable debt (such as an auto loan) after the bankruptcy, usually for the purpose of keeping collateral (i.e. the car) that would otherwise be subject to repossession.

Schedules: Detailed lists filed by the debtor along with (or shortly after filing) the petition showing the debtor's assets, liabilities, and other financial information. (There are official forms a debtor must use.)

Secured creditor: A creditor holding a claim against the debtor who has the right to take and hold or sell certain property of the debtor in satisfaction of some or all of the claim.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

Secured debt: Debt backed by a mortgage, pledge of collateral, or other lien; debt for which the creditor has the right to pursue specific pledged property upon default. Examples include home mortgages, auto loans and tax liens.

Small business case: A special type of chapter 11 case in which there is no creditors' committee (or the creditors' committee is deemed inactive by the court) and in which the debtor is subject to more oversight by the U.S. trustee than other chapter 11 debtors. The Bankruptcy Code the time a small business debtor is in bankruptcy.

Statement of Financial Affairs (Form 107): A series of questions the debtor must answer in writing concerning sources of income, transfers of property, lawsuits by creditors, etc.

Statement of Intention: A declaration made by a chapter 7 debtor concerning plans for dealing with consumer debts that are secured by property of the estate.

Substantive Consolidation: Putting the assets and liabilities of two or more related debtors into a single pool to pay creditors. (Courts are reluctant to allow substantive consolidation since the action must not only justify the benefit that one set of creditors receives, but also the harm that other creditors suffer as a result.)

341 Meeting: The meeting of creditors required by section 341 of the Bankruptcy Code at which the debtor is questioned under oath by creditors, a trustee, examiner, or the U.S. trustee about his/her financial affairs. Also called a creditors' meeting.

Transfer: Any mode or means by which a debtor disposes of or parts with the debtor's property.

Trustee: The representative of the bankruptcy estate who exercises statutory powers, principally for the benefit of the unsecured creditors, under the general supervision of the court and the direct supervision of the U.S. trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The trustee is a private individual or corporation appointed in all chapter 7, chapter 12, and chapter 13 cases and some chapter 11 cases. The trustee's responsibilities include reviewing the debtor's petition and schedules and bringing actions against creditors or the debtor to recover property of the bankruptcy estate. In chapter 7, the trustee liquidates property of the estate, and makes distributions to creditors. Trustees in chapter 12 and 13 have similar duties to a chapter 7 trustee and the additional responsibilities of overseeing the debtor's plan, receiving payments from debtors, and disbursing plan payments to creditors.

U.S. Trustee: An officer of the Justice Department responsible for supervising the administration of bankruptcy cases, estates, and trustees; monitoring plans and disclosure statements; monitoring creditors' committees; monitoring fee applications; and performing other statutory duties. Compare, bankruptcy administrator.

Under Secured Claim: A debt secured by property that is worth less than the full amount of the debt.

Unliquidated Claim: A claim for which a specific value has not been determined.

Unscheduled Debt: A debt that should have been listed by the debtor in the schedules filed with the court but was not. Depending on the circumstances, an unscheduled debt may or may not be discharged.

Unsecured Claim: A claim or debt for which a creditor holds no special assurance of payment, such as a mortgage or lien; a debt for which credit was extended based solely upon the creditor's assessment of the debtor's future ability to pay.

Voluntary Transfer: A transfer of a debtor's property with the debtor's consent.

1. What happens when a bankruptcy petition is filed?

The commencement of a bankruptcy case creates an “estate.” The estate technically becomes the temporary legal owner of all of the Debtor’s property. The estate consists of all legal or equitable interests of the Debtor in property as of the date the case is filed, including property owned or held by another person if the Debtor has an interest in the property. Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code governs the applicability of the “automatic stay” to the facts and circumstances of your bankruptcy case. If it applies, it prohibits creditors from taking collection action against the Debtor or the Debtor’s property without Bankruptcy Court approval. The Court issues a notice of commencement advising all interested parties of the filing of the bankruptcy case. This notice provides the case number, trustee, date of the meeting of creditors, deadline to file a proof of claim (if applicable), and deadline to file an objection to the discharge (if applicable).

More information can be obtained on the Court’s website under Understanding Bankruptcy: www.neb.uscourts.gov

2. What does a case number indicate?

A case number indicates the office location of the court, the year the case was filed, the type of case, the number assigned to the case and the assigned judge. Example: 4:12-bk-00001-TLS, 4 indicates the office in which the case is filed (4 - Lincoln, 8 - Omaha); 12 is the year filed, bk indicates a bankruptcy case (ap indicates an adversary proceeding); 00001 is the case number assigned.

3. Do I need an attorney to represent me in my bankruptcy case?

Each Debtor filing an individual bankruptcy has a right to represent him or herself (Pro Se Debtor); however, the use of an attorney is recommended. Ignorance of the law may cost an individual far more than an attorney’s fee. By law, a Corporation is required to have an attorney. Note: Individuals who choose to represent themselves will not be able to obtain legal advice from court personnel or from the trustee appointed to their case.

4. What is a Pro Se Debtor?

A Pro Se Debtor is one who files bankruptcy without an attorney. A Pro Se Debtor is responsible for all proceedings of his/her case. Failure to comply with the Bankruptcy Code and Rules or with court orders may cause dismissal of the Debtor’s case. It is recommended that all Debtors seek legal advice before filing bankruptcy.

5. Where can I obtain the necessary forms for filing bankruptcy?

The Court will provide forms for a fee. Forms are available from office supply stores or legal stationery stores. Forms are also available for printing on the Court’s website: www.neb.uscourts.gov.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

6. What are the current filing fees for filing bankruptcy?

Filing fees can be found on page 58 of this guide.

7. Can the Court waive the bankruptcy petition filing fee?

28 U.S.C. 1930(f)(1) provides that the court may waive filing fee in a case under Chapter 7 for an individual if the Court determines that such individual has income less than 150 percent of the income official poverty line applicable to a family of the size involved and is unable to pay that fee in installments. The Bankruptcy Rules do provide for individuals to pay the filing fee in installments. To pay the fee in installments, you must submit an application, and the application must be approved by the Court. This form is available at www.neb.uscourts.gov > under the section Filing Without an Attorney > Forms > Local Forms.

8. What will happen to my case if I filed bankruptcy in the past and failed to pay the entire filing fee?

A Bankruptcy Judge may take any of the following steps when the entire filing fee has not been paid in a prior case and the Debtor tries to file another case within 180 days of the entry of the dismissal order: (1) dismiss the case being filed, (2) refuse to allow the Debtor to pay the filing fee in installments for the current case, (3) make the Debtor pay the filing fee from the previous case, or (4) take any other action that is appropriate.

9. What chapter is right for me?

Your decision whether to file bankruptcy and under which chapter to file depends on your particular circumstances. In general, Chapter 7 is appropriate when the Debtor has insufficient income to pay a portion of his/her debts, and the Debtor is not seeking to keep non-exempt property. Otherwise, if the Debtor has an income or property and can afford to repay at least some of his/her debts, Chapter 11, 12 or 13 may be appropriate, depending on whether the Debtor is an individual, partnership, corporation, or family farmer. The decision whether to file a bankruptcy case and under which chapter is an extremely important decision and has tremendous financial impact. Consequently, this decision may require expert advice from a bankruptcy attorney. You may contact The Nebraska Bar Association or Legal Aid of Nebraska, found in your local telephone directories to obtain legal representation.

10. What must I do before I file my case?

Pursuant to section 109(h)(1) you must complete and obtain a certificate from an approved non-profit credit counseling agency during the 180-day period proceeding the date of filing. A list of approved Credit Counseling Agencies can be located on the U.S. Trustee's website at http://www.justice.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.htm

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

11. What is the difference between a chapter 7, 13 and 11?

Chapter 7 – In a Chapter 7, Debtors are permitted to retain certain “exempt” property, while the remaining assets are liquidated by the trustee. The trustee will distribute the funds from the liquidation to holders of claims (creditors) in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, potential Debtors should realize that the filing of a petition under chapter 7 might result in the loss of non-exempt property.

Chapter 13 – Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income to repay a portion or all of their debt over an extended period of time. Chapter 13 may be appropriate for Debtors who seek to retain certain assets through a repayment plan.

Chapter 11 – Chapter 11 allows corporations, partnerships, and certain individuals who do not qualify under Chapter 13, to reorganize without having to liquidate all assets. As in a Chapter 13, the Debtor (called the “debtor-in-possession” because a trustee is not normally assigned) is required to present a repayment plan. If the plan is accepted by the creditors and subsequently approved (“confirmed”) by the Court, this allows the Debtor to reorganize his/her/or its personal, financial, or business affairs.

NOTE: For further information on these Chapters, you may go to the Court’s website: www.neb.uscourts.gov and refer to “Helpful Information”.

12. Where can I get more information about bankruptcy and bankruptcy procedures? Is there a place I can get free or inexpensive legal advice before I file?

The easiest way to get free or inexpensive bankruptcy advice is to make an appointment with a private attorney. Some attorneys may offer a free initial consultation. You may also consider contacting Legal Aid of Nebraska for inexpensive bankruptcy advice. They will send you an application and schedule a session with a bankruptcy attorney to assess your financial situation to see if you qualify for their services, and assist you in deciding what chapter is appropriate. Their fee is on a sliding scale based on your income. In Lincoln, they can be contacted at (402) 435-2161 or (800) 742-7555 and in Omaha at (402) 348-1069 or (888) 991-9921. Inexpensive help in typing your petition and other forms is available from “bankruptcy petition preparers.” “Paralegals” and “typing services” are considered bankruptcy petition preparers and not attorneys. They are not employed or supervised by attorneys and cannot represent you in your bankruptcy. Only a licensed attorney can give you legal advice. Bankruptcy petition preparation services are listed in the telephone book.

13. What services can a bankruptcy petition preparer provide?

Services of petition preparers are limited to the typing of forms. Petition Preparers are not authorized to practice law and therefore cannot provide debtors with legal advice.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

14. How is a debt classified as secured, unsecured or priority?

A secured debt is a debt that is collateralized by property. A creditor whose debt is “secured” has a right to foreclose or to take property to satisfy a “secured debt.” For example, a mortgage loan is likely “secured” by a Debtor’s home. This means that the lender has the right to foreclose upon and take the home if the Debtor fails to make the loan payments.

An unsecured debt arises when you promise to repay someone a sum of money at a particular time, but you have not pledged any property as collateral for the debt.

A priority debt is a debt entitled to priority in payment, ahead of other debts. Please refer to 11 U.S.C. §507 of the Bankruptcy Code for a listing of such priority claims.

15. When do I receive a discharge of my debts?

The Notice of the Section §341 Meeting of Creditors reflects a date by which all complaints objecting to discharge or dischargeability of debts must be filed. If the debtor has complied with all of the filing requirements, paid the filing fee in full and pursuant to section 727(a) (10) completed an instructional course concerning personal financial management, and has filed the proper certification reflecting completion, your discharge will be entered in due course after the expiration of the date stated earlier.

16. How do I change or correct information in the petition, schedules, and statements I already filed with the Clerk’s Office?

The information contained in your petition, schedules, and statement of affairs is submitted under penalty of perjury. Therefore, you must be certain that it is correct when you sign these documents. If, however, you later discover that something is inaccurate, the documents may be corrected by the filing of an amendment with the Clerk’s Office. New schedules or statements must be filed showing the corrected information along with a certificate of service. A fee must be paid when amending schedules D, E, or F (or any list of creditors or mailing matrix). All amendments must be served upon the United States Trustee and case trustee, and certain amendments must be served upon the creditors affected by the amendment. The amendment must also contain an original signature.

17. How do I obtain a copy of my discharge?

You can obtain a copy from the Clerk’s Office by either coming in person or sending in a written request. There is a per page charge (see fee schedule on page 58 of this guide), plus an additional charge if you desire a certified copy. Payment must be in the exact amount payable either by money order or cashier’s check.

18. Can a discharge be denied?

Under certain circumstances, 11 U.S.C. § 727 provides the Debtor’s discharge may be denied in a chapter 7 case. Grounds for denial exist when the Debtor: (1) failed to keep or produce adequate books or financial records, (2) failed to satisfactorily explain any loss of assets, (3) committed a bankruptcy crime such as perjury, (4) failed to obey a lawful order of the bankruptcy court, or (5) fraudulently transferred, concealed, or destroyed property that would have become property of the estate. Refer to § 727 for a complete list.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

19. What is the difference between a discharge being denied and a debt being declared nondischargeable?

The court can deny the Debtor's discharge of all debts, or determine that a particular debt or debts are nondischargeable. If the court denies the discharge of all debts, then the Debtor will still be legally responsible for all the debts as if no bankruptcy petition had ever been filed. If only certain debts are ruled nondischargeable, the Debtor will still receive a discharge order. However, the Debtor will remain legally responsible for those nondischargeable debts. For a discharge to be denied, either as to a particular debt or as to all debts, someone must file an adversary proceeding (lawsuit) with the court. That party must then prove one of the grounds for denial of the discharge or for a debt to be declared nondischargeable. See Question No. 19 (for discharge) and Question No. 15 (for dischargeability of a particular debt). If your discharge is not withheld or none of your debts is declared to be nondischargeable, then all the debts listed in your petition will be discharged upon the entry of the order granting your discharge (meaning your personal liability for the debts will be eliminated).

20. How do I obtain information about a case?

You can visit the courthouse and view a case at the public terminals between the hours of 8:00am and 4:30pm, Monday through Friday. You can also access information for the District of Nebraska, at (402) 437-1625 for the Lincoln and (402) 661-7555. You can also access information for the District of Nebraska by calling the automated phone line, toll-free at 1-866-222-8029. Information about a case may be obtained by providing the Debtor's social security or tax identification number or the Debtor's name. The following information is available: whether a case has been filed, when it was filed and under which chapter, the judge assigned to the case, Debtor's attorney and phone number, trustee and phone number, and date and time of the meeting of creditors required under Section 341 of the Bankruptcy Code.

NOTE: Case information may not be available for cases filed prior to a certain date. Information for such older cases can only be obtained through the Archive's Center in Lenexa, Kansas. Copies can be requested directly from the Archive Center, but certain information will be needed from the Court. Please contact the Clerk's Office where the case was filed for availability of the file or for instructions on ordering archived information, Lincoln at (402) 437-1625, and Omaha at (402) 661-7555 or you can search by case number on the Court's website, www.neb.uscourts.gov under CM/ECF Info./Archive Case Information.

21. May I review my case file?

Yes, files maintained by the Clerk's Office are public records. You may review your case, but you may not remove original documents from the Court files nor take the files from the Clerk's Office. Copies of documents can be made by the Court (see fee schedule on page 58).

22. Who can I call if I have a question about a pending case?

Call the Clerk's Office or the case manager. Phone numbers for all offices are available on the Court's website: www.neb.uscourts.gov or you may contact the Clerk's office in Lincoln at (402) 437-1625 or Omaha at (402) 661-7444.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

24. How do I find out who is the trustee assigned to a case?

You may obtain the trustee's name by visiting the clerk's offices, or through the Voice Case Information System (VCIS). The VCIS telephone number is 1-866-222-8029. For Chapter 11 cases, you can also call the United States Trustee's Offices at (402) 221-4300. (If you received a "Commencement of Case/341 Meeting Notice," the assigned trustee, along with other contact information, is printed on that notice.)

25. What is the role of a Trustee assigned in a chapter 7 or 13 case?

Under Chapter 7, an impartial trustee is appointed to administer the case by collecting and liquidating the Debtor's non-exempt assets in a manner that maximizes the return to the Debtor's unsecured creditors.

Under Chapter 13, an impartial trustee is also appointed to administer the case. The primary roles of the chapter 13 trustee are to determine the feasibility of a Debtor's repayment plan for the court and to serve as a disbursing agent, collecting payments from Debtors and making distributions to creditors.

26. What is the function of the U. S. Trustee?

The office of the U. S. Trustee is an agency of the Department of Justice, with responsibilities that include monitoring the administration of bankruptcy cases and detecting bankruptcy fraud. It is also responsible for appointing and supervising interim trustees to administer Chapter 7 cases, overseeing the Debtor-in-Possession, and appointing a standing Trustee in Chapter 13 cases.

27. What is a 341 meeting?

This meeting is referred to as the "meeting of creditors." All creditors are notified so that they may attend, but their attendance is not required. Debtors have a duty to appear and testify under oath and answer questions by creditors. This meeting is presided over by the trustee assigned to the case and is held approximately 40 days after the petition is filed. Debtors are required to provide photo identification and proof of social security number to the assigned trustee. A Debtor's failure to appear may result in dismissal of the case. If a continuance or change in the hearing date is sought, the trustee assigned to the case must be contacted.

28. If I file for bankruptcy, will it stop an eviction?

The Clerk's Office is prohibited from providing legal advice. Questions pertaining to how a bankruptcy filing affects enforcement of an eviction proceeding should be directed to a bankruptcy attorney.

29. How long does a bankruptcy filing remain on my credit report?

A maximum of ten years under provisions of the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

31. What can I do if I disagree with an order entered in a case?

You can either file a motion for reconsideration of the order or file a notice of appeal. The person filing the notice of appeal becomes an “Appellant” and the other party, the “Appellee.” When an appeal is filed, the matter is referred to the United States District Court. There is a filing fee to Docket the Appeal and a fee for the Notice of Appeal. See fee schedule on page 58.

32. What is an adversary proceeding? What do I need to file when filing an adversary proceeding with the Court?

An adversary proceeding is a lawsuit arising in or related to a bankruptcy case. It is commenced with the filing of an adversary proceeding cover sheet, complaint, summons, and a filing fee, if applicable.

33. What can I do if a creditor keeps trying to collect money after I have filed bankruptcy?

You should immediately notify the creditor in writing that you have filed bankruptcy, and provide them with the case name, case number, and filing date, or a copy of the petition that shows it was filed. If a creditor continues to attempt to collect, the Debtor may be entitled to take legal action against the creditor to obtain a specific order from the court prohibiting the creditor from taking further collection action. However, a formal motion must be filed, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and applicable Rules. If the creditor is willfully violating the automatic stay, the Court can hold the creditor in contempt of court and fine the creditor. Any such legal action brought against the creditor will be complex and will normally dictate representation by a qualified bankruptcy attorney.

34. What should I do if I cannot make my Chapter 13 payment?

If the Debtor cannot make a chapter 13 payment on time pursuant to the terms of the confirmed plan, the Debtor should contact the chapter 13 Trustee by phone and by letter advising the Trustee of the problem and whether it is temporary or permanent. If it is temporary, the Debtor should advise the Trustee of the time and manner in which the Debtor will make up the payments. So long as the Trustee agrees, the payments can be made up over time. If the problem is permanent and the Debtor is no longer able to make payments under the plan, the Trustee will request that the case be dismissed or converted to another chapter, or the Debtor may seek to modify his or her plan. The determination of whether to modify the plan or dismiss or convert a case requires legal analysis. The Debtor should seek counsel from a qualified bankruptcy attorney before attempting to decide how to proceed in their case.

35. My ex-spouse has filed bankruptcy. He/she has listed me as a co-signer on a scheduled debt. What can I do? Does my divorce decree protect me?

If you are a co-debtor with your ex-spouse on a debt, the creditor can require the entire payment of that debt from your share of the marital property, even though the divorce decree assigns the debt to your ex-spouse. Depending on the terms of your divorce decree, you may be able to have certain support obligations determined to be nondischargeable by the bankruptcy court or in state court. You should seek legal advice for a thorough explanation of your rights and obligations in this area as soon as you find out that your ex-spouse has filed bankruptcy.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

36. A company has filed for bankruptcy and owes us money. What do we do?

If you have been listed as a creditor in a bankruptcy case and you received a proof of claim form from the bankruptcy court, make sure to complete the form and file it with the court by the required date. You must attach any documentation that supports your claim. If you wish to have a conformed copy returned to you, please enclose an extra copy and self-addressed, stamped envelope. If you were not listed as a creditor, you may obtain a claim form from the bankruptcy court or you can download a claim form on the Court's website, www.neb.uscourts.gov.

NOTE: Information regarding when a claim will be paid should be directed to the trustee assigned to the case, whose name and telephone number can be found on the 341 meeting notice.

37. How can I access court dockets by computer?

The PACER system allows you to access docket sheets for bankruptcy case proceedings if you have a computer and modem. There is a fee for accessing the PACER service via the Internet (Web PACER). To register for PACER, contact the PACER Service Center at 800-676-6856. For further information on PACER, you can visit their website, www.pacer.gov.

38. How do I obtain a proof of claim form?

Proof of claims may be download on the Court's website, www.neb.uscourts.gov or you may obtain a proof of claim form from the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office.

39. What is a reaffirmation agreement?

A reaffirmation agreement is an agreement between the Debtor and a creditor that the Debtor will pay all or a portion of the money owed, even though the Debtor has filed bankruptcy. In return, the creditor promises that, as long as payments are made, the creditor will not repossess or take back its collateral. This means that the Debtor will remain personally liable on that debt. Refer to 11 U.S.C. § 524 Bankruptcy Code for detailed information.

40. What is a Motion?

A motion is a formal written document in which the party, the movant, who is requesting an action, sets forth his/her grounds for the action requested. The party against whom the action is requested is the respondent.

41. How do I obtain copies or certified copies of documents?

Copies may be obtained directly from the Court for a per page fee, as well as certified copies for a per page fee and a certification fee (see fee schedule on page 58).

Files that are no longer housed in our courthouse facilities are archived at the Kansas City Federal Records Center in Lenexa, Kansas. You may contact the Clerk's office to retrieve the information you will need to provide to the Records Center to access the files, which include the transfer number and box number. You may also retrieve this information on our website, www.neb.uscourts.gov. You will need to have the Bankruptcy Case Number. Once you receive this information, you may contact the Kansas City Federal Records Center in Lenexa, Kansas for copies. The telephone number for the center is (913) 563-7600, the fax number is (913) 563-7691, and their website is, www.archives.gov. Please note that the Archive Center requires a fee for this service.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

42. How do I get a hearing date?

It is not necessary to contact the Court for a hearing date. Upon receipt of properly filed documents, a hearing will be set automatically, and proper notice of the hearing date and time will be given to interested parties.

43. Who do I notify about a possible fraudulent filing?

The office of the United States Trustee reviews complaints about possible fraudulent filings and, if appropriate, notifies the U.S. Attorney for further investigation. The U.S. Trustee's telephone number is (402) 221-4300.

44. What is the BNC?

During the course of a bankruptcy case or proceeding, bankruptcy court notices are mailed by the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (BNC) on behalf of the court. The BNC, which is operated by a private contractor, provides notice production and mailing services for the court, but THE BNC IS NOT THE COURT.

DO NOT SEND DOCUMENTS TO THE BNC

Documents related to a bankruptcy case or proceeding should be sent directly to the Court.

Payment Methods

Cash

Effective May 1, 2012, the US Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nebraska will no longer accept cash.

Checks

The US Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nebraska will only accept checks from attorneys¹. Debtors-In-Possession (DIP) may pay using an official business check².

Credit Cards/ACH

The US Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nebraska now has the ability to accept payments by Credit/Debit Cards or Automatic Clearing House (ACH). The Court can accept all major credit cards. Both convenient methods of payment are processed by Pay.gov.

ACH is a direct debit method in which the payment comes directly out of a checking account. No card number is needed. You will only need to provide a bank routing and account number. This is a great hassle-free way of making a payment.

Money Order/Cashier's Check

The US Bankruptcy Court for the District of Nebraska accepts Money Orders and Cashier's Checks.

Payee	Acceptable Methods of Payment
Attorneys	Credit/Debit Card; Check
Debtors	Cashier's Check or Money Order
Debtors-In-Possession	Business Check; Cashier's Check; Money Order
Non-Debtors/Closed-Case Debtors	Credit/Debit Card; Cashier's Check; Money Order

All payments for Bankruptcy filings, must be made at or sent to the United States Bankruptcy Court, 111 South 18th Plaza, Suite 1125, Omaha, NE 68102-1321.

¹ Checks will be accepted from attorneys filing on behalf of clients. Checks may not be accepted on behalf of their own filing. Checks may be refused and an additional payment method may be requested at any time.

² The official name of the DIP must be imprinted on the official check. Checks may be refused and an additional payment method may be requested at any time.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER §342(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a “means test” designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
